
Learning & development

In today's fast paced evolving business environment, business professionals need access to practical up-to-date business information from a trusted source.

Now, for tomorrow

Baker Tilly Staples Rodway is a full-service accountancy and business advisory firm with a New Zealand-wide network of offices. We are a member of the global Baker Tilly network.

Our Learning and Development offering is well recognised in the New Zealand professional services market. From our original involvement with the authoritative Staples Tax Guide, to our current portfolio of publications and webinars*, Baker Tilly Staples Rodway has the Learning and Development excellence to help your business team continuously upskill.

 Including webinars delivered to the professional and business customers of CCH Wolters Kluwer New Zealand (part of the multinational Wolters Kluwer group).*

Recent presentations of interest have included:

- Tax updates and Government tax relief
- Navigating Goods and Services Tax – including digital services
- Managing employee and contractor payroll and withholding taxes
- Importing goods and dealings with New Zealand Customs Service
- Human Resource law and practice

We partner with other topic specialists such as law firms to provide business and commercial law updates and content on selected topics.

Our learning and development team

Andrew heads the Auckland Tax and Learning & Development teams. Qualified as both an accountant and lawyer, he is ideally qualified to find practical solutions to the most complicated matters. In 2018 Andrew was appointed as the Board Chairman in the Auckland office and is a member of the Institute of Directors.

Maurits is a Senior Manager in our Tax team. His learning and development experience includes presenting a broad range of webinars, video webinars, and many presentations to CPA and CA ANZ members covering topics such as cross-border business, and an annual tax conference. Maurits also co-authored two well regarded tax texts produced by CCH Wolters Kluwer New Zealand.

Delivery of content

The delivery of Learning and Development is matched to your business needs and can include in-house workshops, webinars over Microsoft Teams, or bespoke business solutions.
